Visiting Melbourne to learn more about women in leadership, the group is also on a quest to discover more of the history and influences behind two inspirational women from Victoria, Rev Cath Ritchie and Deaconess Amy Skinner who started the PWMU in Vanuatu in the 1950s.

Cath Ritchie and Amy Skinner are seen by the PWMU in Vanuatu as significant role models and they want to find out more about their past and what moulded them. With this knowledge and experience they feel their work as Christian and community leaders will be greatly enhanced upon their return to Vanuatu .

All proceeds to support the tour and Vanuatu women in leadership.
